A NATIVE BOY

A native boy about ten years old was drowned in the Waikahalulu Falls in the Nuuanu stream yesterday. His name was Joe Lelehua and he is the son of a former member of the Police

It seems the boy, who lives at Iwilel, had gone to the stream with a number of other boys to bathe. He either fell in the water or got beyond his depth and although he made a struggle to get ashore the other boys, to whom the little fellow was a stranger, thought he was fooling and before they realized what had happened he was drowned. The police were notified immediately and officers visited the scene of the accident and recovered the body, which was removed to the H. H. Williams undertaking parlors. The jury which was the same as was on the Walter Lee case brought in the following verdict after viewing the body and hearing evidence:

The said Joe Lelehua Jr., a boy, camto his death in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, on the 21st day of August, A. D. 1903, by being accidentally drowned in the "Waikahalulu Falis" in said Honolulu.
